“It Ain’t Weak to Speak”

LIVIN was founded in honor of a great man Dwayne Lally who like many others took his life after suffering in silence from a mental illness. LIVIN is all about living your life at the top and destroying the stigma that is attached to mental illness. Connecting, supporting and encouraging one another to talk about their feelings, issues and problems because “It Ain’t Weak to Speak”. This is an illness we can beat as long as we unite in love, support and understanding. It’s time to make a change and stop this from crippling our society. You are not alone. 1 in 4 people suffer from a mental illness in their lifetime. Let’s unite to help our brothers and sisters start LIVIN again.
